INDEX
SUBJECTS and NAMES

ACCESSIBILITY
The Accuracy of Talking Pedometers When Used During Free-Living: A Comparison of Four Devices—May 299–304
The Brussels Metro: Accessibility Through Collaboration—October–November 638–647
Editor's Page—August 451
The Effects of Truncated Dome Detectable Warnings on Travelers Negotiating Curb Ramps in Wheelchairs—May 276–286
High School Teachers' Perspectives on Supporting Students with Visual Impairments Toward Higher Education: Access, Barriers, and Success—September 548–559
The Impact of Assistive Technology on the Educational Performance of Students with Visual Impairments: A Synthesis of the Research—February 73–83
Low Vision Services in Nepal: An Overview—April 240–243
A Pilot Study of a Self-voicing Computer Program for Prealgebra Math Problems—March 157–169

ADAPTIVE TECHNOLOGY
High School Teachers' Perspectives on Supporting Students with Visual Impairments Toward Higher Education: Access, Barriers, and Success—September 548–559

ADOLESCENTS
Associations of Extroversion and Parental Overprotection with Forming Relationships with Peers Among Adolescents with and without Visual Impairments—February 96–107
Attainment of Developmental Tasks by Adolescents with Visual Impairments and Sighted Adolescents—January 33–44
Editor's Page—January 3, February 67
Evaluating the Empowered Curriculum for Adolescents with Visual Impairments—June 350–360
An Examination of Characteristics Related to the Social Skills of Youths with Visual Impairment—February 84–95
The Use of Assistive Technology by High School Students with Visual Impairments: A Second Look at the Current Problem—April 235–239

ADVOCACY
Becoming Commuters: Teaching Students Traveling to Work Using Public Transportation—May 262–265

AGE-RELATED MACULAR DEGENERATION
Editor's Page—January 3
Low Vision Services in Nepal: An Overview—April 240–243
The Societal Impact of Age-related Macular Degeneration: Use of Social Support Resources Differs by the Severity of the Impairment—January 5–19

AGING
Determinants of the Overall Quality of Life of Older Persons Who Have Difficulty Seeing: The Importance of the Ability to Get Around—October–November 720–730
Editor's Page—June 323
Foundations of Low Vision: Clinical and Functional Perspectives (2nd Ed.), by Corn & Erin (Eds.), reviewed by Kerry Lueders—July 441–443
The Impact of Visual Disability on the Quality of Life of Older Persons in Rural Northeast Thailand—June 361–369

AKCAMETE, AYSE GONUL
The Relationship of Personnel Preparation to the Competence of Teachers of Students with Visual Impairments in Turkey—February 108–124

ALBRIGHT, CAROLYN
The Accuracy of Talking Pedometers When Used During Free-Living: A Comparison of Four Devices—May 299–304

ALPASS, FIONA
Determinants of the Overall Quality of Life of Older Persons Who Have Difficulty Seeing: The Importance of the Ability to Get Around—October–November 720–730

AMATO, SHEILA
Some Thoughts on Braille, by Eliot, December 1952, New Outlook for the Blind. Recommended by Sheila Amato—August 502–503

AMBLYOPIA
Low Vision Services in Nepal: An Overview—April 240–243

AROUND THE WORLD
Fingerbraille: An Investigation of Japanese Methods for Communicating with Individuals Who Are Deaf-Blind—March 181–185
Low Vision Services in Nepal: An Overview—April 240–243

ASSESSMENT
Assessment of Dog Guides by Users in Japan and Suggestions for Improvement—October–November 591–600
Attainment of Developmental Tasks by Adolescents with Visual Impairments and Sighted Adolescents—January 33–44
Collaborative Research: The Alphabetic Braille Contracted and Braille Study as an Example of Collaborative Research—December 770–780
Comparing Tactile Maps and Haptic Digital Representations of a Maritime Environment—April 222–234

Unmet Needs: Service Issues for Persons Who Are Blind or Have Low Vision—March 170–180

ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY
The Accuracy of Talking Pedometers When Used During Free-Living: A Comparison of Four Devices—May 299–304
Assistive Technology Competencies of Teachers of Students with Visual Impairments: A Comparison of Perceptions—September 533–547
Assistive Technology for Students with Visual Impairments: Challenges and Needs in Teachers' Preparation Programs and Practice—April 197–210
Editor's Page—April 195, September 515
The Impact of Assistive Technology on the Educational Performance of Students with Visual Impairments: A Synthesis of the Research—February 73–83
The Use of Assistive Technology by High School Students with Visual Impairments: A Second Look at the Current Problem—April 235–239

AUDITORY COMPENSATION
The Acuity of Echolocation: Spatial Resolution in Sighted Persons Compared to the Performance of an Expert Who Is Blind—January 20–32
Editor's Page—January 3

AUTISM
Autism Spectrum Disorders and Visual Impairment Are Here to Stay: Using an Expanded Core Curriculum to Implement a Comprehensive Program of Instruction—June 329–334
Commentary on Providing Services to Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders—June 325–329
Editor's Page—June 323
Optic Nerve Hypoplasia and Autism: Common Features of Spectrum Diseases—June 334–338

AUTISM FOCUS
Autism Spectrum Disorders and Visual Impairment Are Here to Stay: Using an Expanded Core Curriculum to Implement a Comprehensive Program of Instruction—June 329–334
Commentary on Providing Services to Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders—June 325–329
Optic Nerve Hypoplasia and Autism: Common Features of Spectrum Diseases—June 334–338

BABKES-STELLINO, MEGAN
Parental Influence and the Attraction to Physical Activity for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired at a Residential-Day School—August 493–498

BARDIN, JULIE A.
General Education Teachers' Ratings of the Academic Engagement Level of Students Who Read Braille: A Comparison with Sighted Peers—August 479–492

BARLOW, JANET M.
Nonvisual Cues for Aligning to Cross Streets—October–November 648–661
Walking Between the Lines: Nonvisual Cues for Maintaining Headings During Street Crossings—October–November 662–674

BARRELLA, KRISTI
Striving to Provide Innovative Orientation and Mobility Services in Times of Diminishing Resources—October–November 587–590

BEAL, CAROLE R.
A Pilot Study of a Self-voicing Computer Program for Prealgebra Math Problems—March 157–169

BELGIUM
The Brussels Metro: Accessibility Through Collaboration—October–November 638–647

BENTZEN, BILLIE LOUISE
Nonvisual Cues for Aligning to Cross Streets—October–November 648–661
Walking Between the Lines: Nonvisual Cues for Maintaining Headings During Street Crossings—October–November 662–674

BESDEN, CHERYL
Striving to Provide Innovative Orientation and Mobility Services in Times of Diminishing Resources—October–November 587–590

BIOGRAPHIES/AUTOBIOGRAPHIES
Undaunted by Blindness: Concise Biographies of 400 People Who Refused to Let Visual Impairment Define Them, by Olstrom, reviewed by Susan Jay Spungin—September 573–574

BODDY, JULIE
The Impact of Visual Disability on the Quality of Life of Older Persons in Rural Northeast Thailand—June 361–369

BOOK REVIEWS
Focus on Music 2: Exploring the Musicality of Children and Young People with Retinopathy of Prematurity, by Ockelford & Matawa, reviewed by William R. McCann—May 306–308
Foundations of Low Vision: Clinical and Functional Perspectives (2nd Ed), by Corn & Erin (Eds.), reviewed by Kerry Lueders—July 441–443
Foundations of Orientation and Mobility (3rd Ed): Vol. 1 History and Theory and Vol. 2 Instructional Strategies and Practical Applications, by Wiener, Welsh, & Blasch (Eds.), reviewed by Robert Shawn Wall Emerson and James Leja—August 499–502
Getting Ready for College Begins in Third Grade: Working Toward an Independent Future for Your Blind/VI Child, Pre-K to Middle School, by Castellano, reviewed by Stuart H. Wittenstein—May 305–306
Undaunted by Blindness: Concise Biographies of 400 People Who Refused to Let Visual Impairment Define Them, by Olstrom, reviewed by Susan Jay Spungin—September 573–574
Visual Impairment in Children Due to Damage to the Brain: Clinics in Developmental Medicine, by Dutton & Bax (Eds.), reviewed by Darick Wright—April 245–246
